THE TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

This Report is for the fiscal year ending December 31st, 1885.

During this period, as last year, the efforts of the Trustees were devoted to developing the School, and in this work again, as heretofore, they had the active co-operation and assistance of the Associate Committee of Women.

One department of the School—that of Weaving and Textile Design—chiefly engaged their attention, because instruction in these arts, although it will have an important influence upon one of the largest manufacturing industries in Philadelphia, is given in no other School in this city.

The manufacturers themselves showed their interest in the success of this department in several substantial ways. Early in the year Mr. Theo. C. Search, the Chairman of the Committee on Instruction, announced that the Philadelphia Textile Association, of which he is a member, had authorized him to expend on this department, at his discretion, some thirty thousand dollars, which had been subscribed by the Association toward its establishment and maintenance. During the summer a brick wing or extension to the School building was erected, and in it were placed looms of various patterns and other necessary machinery that had been given or loaned by manufacturers. The cost of the extension, some two thousand five hundred dollars, was met mainly by private subscription. The report of the Principal gives full detail of this and the other departments of the School. His report shows, also, a gratifying increase in the number of scholars.

The growth of the School materially increased the cost of its maintenance, but, chiefly owing to the indefatigable efforts of the Associate Committee of Women and the success of their entertainments, the proceeds of which were given exclusively to the School, the excess of expenditures over receipts was only two hundred and twenty-one dollars and twenty-six cents. The cost of establishing and maintaining the Textile School, three thousand six hundred and ninety-two dollars and sixty-one cents, was provided for by the Textile Association in the manner previously stated.

The report of the Curator of the Museum shows that the number of visitors was somewhat less than last year, but largely in excess of all other previous years. In August the cost of the repairs to Memorial Hall having reduced the sum which the Trustees received from the Park Commissioners for the maintenance of the Museum nearly three thousand dollars below the amount they had expected to receive, it became necessary to discharge all but three of the Museum employees. In order to obviate the necessity of closing the building, the Park Commissioners detailed four Park Guards in the places of some of the discharged men. In June there was a slight fire in the roof of Memorial Hall, but, fortunately, the collections received no injury. Owing to lack of means, the Trustees thus far have been unable to have labels printed describing the objects in the collections; as a temporary expedient, therefore, written descriptive labels were provided this year in their stead.

The Amendments to the Charter and By-Laws, made by the Corporation in April, were granted by the Court in June, and are now in force.

Subscriptions to the Endowment Fund and Life Membership fees, amounting to six hundred and ninety dollars, were received. The Fund now amounts to fifty thousand eight hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy-four cents, exclusive of four thousand eight hundred and ninety-five dollars and sixty-seven cents invested in the School building, 1336 Spring Garden Street.

Notwithstanding the assistance received from the city in maintaining the Museum, and the large sum of money collected by the Associate Committee of Women for the School, together with that paid by the Textile Association for the same purpose, the indebtedness of the Corporation has been increased four thousand five hundred and nineteen dollars and thirty-nine cents, and now amounts to sixteen thousand nine hundred and eight dollars and seven cents. It is evident, therefore, that some means must be devised to provide for this deficiency if the Institution is to continue as at present organized.

Following are the reports of the Curator of the Museum and the Principal of the School:

THE MUSEUM.

During the year one hundred and eighty-two thousand three hundred and twenty-six persons visited the Museum. Of this number ninety-three thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, more than one-half, were Sunday visitors.

One of our greatest needs is an easy and direct approach from the Lansdowne drive for carriages. There can be no doubt that this need is a chief reason why the Museum is so seldom visited and so little known by the very class of our citizens on whom we are chiefly dependent for encouragement and support.

No additions by purchases were made to the collections.

Among the gifts the most notable were a large Chinese processional banner of silk with insertions of figures and flowers, and Mr. Lloyd Hoppin's beautiful cork model of Westminster Abbey. The latter gift makes the Museum the owner of Mr. Hoppin's four most important works, namely, the models of Westminster Abbey, Windsor Castle, the Tower of London, and the Basilica of St. Peter's at Rome.

Among the loans the most important addition were the numerous objects—statuary, painting, furniture, and bric-a-brac deposited by Miss Laura T. Merrick. A valuable and highly interesting loan of another kind is the collection of watches—mostly in painted and enamelled cases—deposited by Mrs. Bloomfield H. Moore, in the Moore Memorial Room.

On the sixth of June there was a slight fire in the roof, caused by the upsetting of a tinsmith's furnace. No damage was done to the collections, although some fifteen or twenty cases had to be hurriedly emptied of their contents. After the fire had been extinguished, it was easy to quickly determine, by consulting the case registers, that not a single object was missing. This was a good test of the efficiency of the check system we are using.

In deference to Mrs. Moore's wishes, the objects in the Moore Memorial Collection have not been labeled. With these exceptions, however, every object in the Museum is now marked by a descriptive label.

During the year gifts of objects were made to the Museum by JACOB D. GROSS:

Stone Inkstand (Rock of Gibraltar).

GEO. W. CHILDS, HENRY C. GIBSON, HENRY WINSOR, E. S. CLARKE, MISS E. W. LEWIS, MISS M. LEWIS, FRANCIS W. LEWIS:

Chinese Silk Wall Hanging.

MISS HELEN R. SCHEETZ:

Flint-Lock Gun (Spanish?).

STEWART CULIN:

Chinese Coins.

DALTON DORR:

Mexican Pottery.

WILLIAM PLATT PEPPER:

Carved Ivory Figure; Cloisonne Enamel Cup.

J. W. COLES:

Model of a Chinese Raft (Island of Formosa).

A. J. DREXEL, J. VAUGHAN MERRICK, GEO. W. CHILDS, CHAS. W. TROTTER, E. W. CLARK, CHAS. E. WARBURTON, FRANK T. S. DARLEY, CLARENCE H. CLARK:

Cork Model of Westminster Abbey, by Lloyd Hoppin.

Contributions to the Library were received from

The Boston Museum of Fine Arts, the Cincinnati Museum Association, the University of Pennsylvania, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Stewart Culin, the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, the Kansas Academy of Science, the Inter-State Industrial Exposition of Chicago, Stuart Wood.

Loans of objects to the Museum were made by Miss Laura T. Merrick, Miss R. E. J. Dickeson, A. E. Outerbridge, William Platt Pepper, Mayer Sulzberger, A. J. Geiger, Stewart Culin, A. Sidney Roberts, Mrs. Bloomfield H. Moore, Charles Davis Clark.

GRAND TOTAL,

THE SCHOOL.

The most important change in the organization and working of the School has been in the direction of extending and developing the department of Weaving and Textile Design.

An addition to the building at 1336 Spring Garden Street was built for this purpose during the summer vacation, and furnished with looms and other machinery, so that the work of the weaving classes is not only pretty complete as such, but designs for carpets and other classes of figured goods produced in the other classes are worked into actual fabrics under the same roof.

This department has received the following gifts of machinery :

A Crompton Power Loom from Mr. Geo. Crompton, of Worcester, Mass. (mentioned in last report).

A Knowles Power Loom from Messrs. Knowles Brothers, of Worcester, Mass., and the following from Philadelphia manufacturers :

A Murkland Carpet Loom from Messrs. M. A. Furbush & Son.

A Hand Carpet Loom from Thos. A. Leedom.

A Jacquard Machine and a Card Stamper from W. P. Uhlinger.

A Power Loom from the Bridesburg Manufacturing Company.

A Cop Winder from A. J. Culp & Co.

Shaftings, etc., from Messrs. Thomas Wood & Co.

Seven hand-loom, one of them a Jacquard, have also been purchased for this department by the Philadelphia Textile Association, through whose co-operation and under whose supervision the department is conducted.

In these classes, as well as in the Carving Class and the Class in Applied Design, it is the purpose of the School to execute orders as well as to instruct pupils.

The following prizes were offered for competition to students, and were awarded at the close of the School year in June :

- (1)—THE PRESIDENT'S PRIZE, offered by President Pepper: A box of colors and instruments, value twenty-five dollars, for the best set of works executed by a student in the regular first year's course.

Calvin A. Sweetzer.

The designs for carpets of Miss Emilie W. Uhlinger and Miss Katherine Stockton received honorable mention.

The usual closing exercises were held at 1336 Spring Garden Street, on Tuesday evening, June 2d.

Addresses were made by the President, by Mr. William Arrott, Mr. Geo. C. Lambdin, and by Mr. T. C. Search.

Certificates were awarded to five students who had completed the course in industrial drawing, to four for the course in painting, and to one for that in modelling.

An exhibition of students' work was held at the School-rooms during the first week in June.

At the beginning of the current School year the textile department, which had during the preceding year been conducted as an evening class only, was, with the additional facilities which had been provided during the summer, made a day class as well.

The corps of instructors was augmented by the engagement of Mr. E. A. Posselt, a graduate of the Government Advanced Weaving School, of Reichenberg, Austria, and a designer of much experience and success, who has been placed in general charge of this department; of Mr. John F. Lee, from the Bradford Technical College in England, and of Mr. E. W. France, who has charge of the Loom Work.

The class in wood-carving is in charge of Mr. John Scott.

To the scholarships which were placed at the disposal of the Board of Public Education of the city, five appointments have been made this year. Three holders of former appointments are still in the School.
